1. The Advanced Police School (Höhere Polizeischule) of the Central Administration of the Interior for the Russian Zone of Germany, located at Berlin/Pankow, Seckendorf Strasse 31, postponed the opening of the first course from 15 May 1947 until June 1947. Routine administrative difficulties necessitated the delay.

2. According to source, the following have thus far been appointed to the faculty:

Rhodin	Ideology instructor (Weltanschaulich)
Mickert
Kiehn	Police Administration
Kleesattel	Ideology instructor
Mank	Department of Interior - Government Organization
Lorenz	Organization of Security Police
Dr. Eberlein	Police Medical Procedure - Criminology
Ulbricht
Nürnberg
Pfeiffer	Organization and Duties of Water Police
Franz
Evert
Karsolzky
Stahl

3. In addition to the above, Neese, Gabelin, and Packe, the officials heading the school will also take an active part in instructing.

25X1A Comment: For further details on this school see report

4. All administrative work concerning the Police School is under the supervision of Verwaltungsdirektor Reifenratt. He is assisted by Jaschke, and Hesse. Their secretaries are, respectively, Frl. Stelltner, Frl. Lane, and Frau Appel.

25X1A Comment: The following information has been uncovered on the background of faculty members.

Kleesattel -- former SA man. Dismissed as Precinct Chief in the U.S. Sector when his Nazi affiliation became known. Case came before the Kommandatura, as the SED insisted that subject join the SA on instructions of the KPD in 1932. U.S. Public Safety was willing to reconsider circumstances of SA membership, but claimed there was sufficient grounds to dismiss subject on other charges. Case was widely discussed in Berlin
